

Healthcare in Germany

Headed to Germany for the big international football tournament this summer? Here are a few things to keep in mind:

Hospitals are the primary destinations to go in case of a health event or medical emergency

Some hospitals may accept credit cards, travellers should expect to pay cash for services and medications

Dial 112 for fire and ambulance services; 110 for police

Know how your health benefits work while in another country

Food and tap water are considered safe
